ACTION OF STEWARDS IN DISQUALIFYING DINNA KEN CAUSES PUBLIC PROTEST.

Miller, Rider of Dashaway, Claims Foul and Autumn Stakes Go to Arcite—Fountainblue's Withdrawal Causes Disappointment.

New York, September 11.-The withdrawal of De Mund and Fountainblue from the Autumn Stakes disappointment to the racegoers thronged the Sheepshead Bay course this afternoon in the expectation of seeing a race between these two juvenile celebrities which might confirm or reverse their running in the Flatbush Stakes clear away the mystery that envelops the defeat of Brady's colt. Early rumor credited trainer May with a natural disinclination to submit De Mund to the severe ordeal involved in carrying 129 pounds as against 112 pounds or less on the others for a comparatively small stake. Hence no particular surprise was manifest over his absence, but with Fountainblue it was different. Matt Allen's exploitation of the Flatbush favorite's speed at Gravesend in Sunday's workout and the accusations against jockey Jack Martin had prepared the public for a treat from Fountainblue in the way of speed and a Therefore triumphant vindication for the trainer. it was a disappointed lot of racegoers that received the announcement that trainer Allen had "scratched

Another and greater trial awaited the public, however, when Dinna Ken, the winner and much the best horse in the Autumn Stakes, was disqualified for a foul alleged to have been committed at the starf. H. K. Knapp, Schuyler Parsons and F. C. Bishop were in the stewards' stand and for the first time in many years the public refused to accept an official ruling without protest. Press comments in the afternoon papers are particularly bitter. What occurred at the start was not visible to the public or the stewards and it was upon the unexpected claim of foul made by jockey Miller and the testimony of the starter that prompted the stewards to take their action. The claim made was that Dinna Ken had cut across in front at the start and bumped Dashaway. Arcite, running on the extreme outside throughout and finishing in steady fashion, earning a distant second, was awarded the race.

"WELL-RIGGED" RACECOURSE.

"If Colonel Bob Pinkerton keeps on he will have the Sheepshead Bay racecourse resembling a colossal ship under full sail," says the Morning Telegraph. "He and his men have been playing hide aid seek with the poolroom people ever since Futurity day and the stay-in-town layers of odds must have leased three-fourths of the window room overlooking the track. Every time Colonel Pinkerton finds the poolroom people have secured a fresh point of vantage he stakes a pair of telephone poles and rigs up a huge canvas curtain or sail. There are four of these now flapping in the breezes in the backstretch, and the first thing you know there'll be no more view of the bay from the top of the grand-stand."

DISCOURAGING AN ANNOYING PRACTICE.

New York, September 11.—The Jockey Club took heed of the press criticism aroused by the adding of horses at the last moment in yesterday's Sapphire Stakes and, to discourage the practice, a notice was posted today requesting trainers to advise the clerk of the scales of their intentions to add horses in stakes by two o'clock p. m, hereafter.

CHOSING A MATE FOR HAMBURG BELLE.

John Mackey, who was the manager of J. B. Haggin's Rancho del Paso, is said to be of the opinion that Hamburg Belle should be mated with Star Ruby. A. J. Joyner, who trained the great mare for all her races, thinks Watercress is the staHion for her.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE SEPTEMBER STAKES.

Although not especially valuable, the September Stakes has always been viewed with favor by owners, with the result that such high-class horses as Louisette, The Bard, Kingston, Salvator, Reckon, Bassetlaw, Killashandra, Blues, Caughnawaga, The Picket and Beldame show in its list of winners. Its distance calls for stayers and it has nearly always been productive of a contest of great interest. The record of the rece is as follows:

LOWERS TRACK RECORD; IS DISQUALIFIED. Sartor Resartus Twice Fouls Sam Parmer at Windsor —His Rider Is Suspended.

Detroit, Mich., September 11.—Windsor racegoers left the track today fully satisfied that they had received the worth of their money. They had plentiful excitement. Eight went to the post in the steeplechase, but only three finished. The others either threw their riders or bolted at different stages of the journey. Jockey J. Morris, who rode Bery Waddell, came out of it with a badly battered face. McKinney permitted Sartor Resartus to bump Sam Parmer twice, first in going over the last jump and again in the stretch for which his mount was disqualified and first place given to Sam Parmer with Little Wally second. Jockey McKinney was suspended for the remainder of the meeting. Sartor Resartus broke the track record. One individual who had bet on the disqualified horse, got so worked up over the decision that he fainted in the betting ring and had to receive medical attention.

Bryan, in the last race, ran like a stake horse. The De Arman gelding was entered to be sold for $1,000 and "Red" Walker, whose horse The Borgian, finished second, promptly ran the winner up to $1,500, De Arman retaining his horse with the customary $5 bid.

W. T. Anderson and W. J. Young have shipped their horses to Toronto. Ed Whalen will ship to the same place Thursday, while E. S. Gardner's stable will be sent to Churchill Downs.

Some of the horsemen who have telegraphed to Douglas Park have been informed by Secretary Nathanson that there is no room for them at the Louisville track.

GREAT STAKES TO CLOSE NEXT SATURDAY.

A number of rich stakes of the future offered by the Westchester Racing Association, close for entries at midnight of Saturday next. To western owners these stakes should prove of prime importance. turf affairs in the west now are, opportunities to engage promising youngsters advantageously are of the scantest, with no near prospect of a reversion to the former more prosperous conditions in that re-gard. No doubt Memphis, Nashville, Louisville and Latonia will be in the field with their usual provision of stakes for their spring meetings and Douglas Park will provide something additional, but for mid summer and autumn racing nothing better is to be at Latonia and the Louisville tracks. This will do for the platers, but not for the owners of good horses, particularly the possessors of good two-year-It is this state of affairs which should appeal effectively to western owners in the way of inducing nore than ordinarily liberal entries to the valuable

The stakes now offered are all of long established fame and, with the exception of the Belmont of 1909, which is for foals of 1906, are for now yearlings, being the Juvenile, Fashion and Eclipse Stakes for two-year-olds of 1907; the Withers, Ladies and Belmont Stakes of 1908 and the Belmont of 1909. The added money to the Withers has been increased from $5,000 to $10,000. The Ladies it has been raised from $3,000 to $5,000. The forty-second Belmont, that is the Belmont of 1908, is of the guaranteed value of $25,000, having already closed for foal entries, but the Belmont of 1909 has been increased to the guaranteed value of $30,000. Such increases in value are to be taken into respectful account. No wise owner will hesitate about engaging his well bred youngsters in such rich events. The selling value of a yearling or two-year-old is vastly enhanced by its nominations in big future events. The stakes now offered are:

FOR TWO-YEAR-OLDS OF 1907.

Juvenile Stakes, $2,500 added; 5-8 mile.

Fashion Stakes, fillies, $2,000 added; 4 1-2 furlongs

Eclipse Stakes, $5,000 added; 5 1-2 furlongs.

FOR THREE-YEAR-OLDS OF 1908.

Withers Stakes, $10,000 added; 1 mile.
Ladies Stakes, fillies, $5,000 added; 1 mile.
Belmont Stakes, value $25,000; 1 3-8 miles.

FOR THREE-YEAR-OLDS OF 1909 (NOW FOALS).
Belmont Stakes, value $30,000; 1 3-8 miles.

At the same time the National Stallion Race will close for the nomination of stallions. Entry blanks are ready for applicants at this office and nominations are to be sent to H. G. Crickmore, clerk of the course, The Windsor Arcade, New York.

CASE OF "RINGING" AT LATONIA IS ALLEGED. Story Afloat at Cincinnati That Another Horse Was Substituted for John Dillon August 27.

Cincinnati, O., September 11.—There is a story going the rounds here to the effect that the real John Dillon did not win the jumping race at La-tonia on August 27. It is related, though not with the degree of positiveness which should attend such a charge, that an older and thoroughly tried horse substituted for the three-year-old son of Maced and Merry Nell on that day. John Dillon was bred by J. B. Respess. He was not raced as a two-yearold. He became the property of Mrs. William Webb and was turned over to A. Noble to be trained for steeplechases. He made his first start over the timbers at Latonia June 30, last. There was noth ing impressive about his race. He was not in serious contention at any stage. He fenced cleanly, however, and rated along about sixth. His nam appeared on the card shortly afterward but, he wa scratched and he was not entered again until the of August 27. The horse that ran that day was off in front and, maintaining the position all the way, won easily. He was opened at 6 to 1, went to 12 and was backed to 10 to 1. It is now alleged that a great deal of money was taken out of poolrooms and handbooks throughout the country. Three days later he was out again and ran about the same as he did on his initial appearance.

Secretary John Dillon of the Latonia Jockey Club, for whom the colt was named, says he is positive that it was the real John Dillon that ran and won. He says J. B. Respess was in the paddock that day and identified the horse.

ATOKA RUNS THREE FURLONGS IN 33 1-2.

Atoka won at three-eighths of a mile in 33% carrying 115 pounds. That clipped a quarter of ond off the American record. Sam F. finished third in that race. August 25 Sam F. ran a quarter of a mile in 22 with 130 pounds up. Atoka was not in August 27 Atoka won at five-eighths a mile in 1:00. Thursday last Atoka beat Sam F. two lengths in a race at three-eighths of a mile in 34. Atoka carried 125 pounds and Sam F. had up horses over the result of this race concluded in the match race on Friday, which was at catch weights, Atoka carrying 105 pounds and Sam F. 97. They ran together until within forty yards of the wire, when Atoka left Sam. F. as if he had been tied.

TOM WELSH'S NOTIONS ABOUT YOUNGSTERS.

"The Flatbush has certainly upset all calculations as to two-year-old form," said Tom Welsh to Sam Doggett at Sheepshead Bay after De Mund's victory "and it has developed one thing that's in

"What's that?" asked Mr. Doggett.
"Why, it shows there's still a chance for Gallant

Dan to turn out to be the best racehorse of the year," was the answer.

This cheering information presented on a silver

This cheering information, presented on a silver salver, so to speak, by Mr. Welsh to Mr. Doggett, is pretty much in line with the system of "doping" formulated by Mr. Welsh after the Futurity, when he announced that J. C. Core, by his calculations, was a better horse than Electioneer, the winner of the big race.

"Easiest thing you know," said Mr. Welsh. "J. C. Core beat Killaloe easily at Saratoga, didn't he? Killaloe beat Pope Joan without any trouble in the Great Filly, and on this line J. C. Core is lots better than Pope Joan. It took Electioneer's life almost to beat Pope Joan in the Futurity, so I figure that J. C. Core is better than Electioneer. That's the answer."

FABULA WINS GERMAN FUTURITY.

Memphis, Tenn., September 11.—According to a cable message received today by his parents, George Walker, the American trainer, furnished the winner of the German Futurity at Baden Baden in the two-year-old Fabula from the stable of Weinberg Brothers. The race was worth 36,000 marks and a large field started, including youngsters from France. Winnie O'Connor rode the winner.

CORUSCATE'S RARE STUNT.

CAUGHT IN THE BARRIER AND ALL BUT LEFT, SHE WINS THE HANDICAP.

Crowd Cheers the Performance—Makes It Bad for Obert—Oasis Is Backed Heavily—Daring Is Under Suspicion.

Louisville, Ky., September 11.—In the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, which was the feature of an ordinary card at Douglas Park today, Coruscate ran one of the most phenomenal races seen this season. Starter Dade aligned the field too close to the barrier and at its rise Coruscate was entagled in the webbling. By the time she was freed she was many lengths out of it. Old Stone was away in his stride and went into a long lead. Approaching the half mile ground Coruscate struck her gait and on the stretch turn jockey Wishard took advantage of the natural spread and steered her for the inner rail, saving a good deal of ground. In the final furlong she joined Old Stone and El Otros, which were then disputing for the lead, and drawing level with the pair when a sixteenth out, took punishment the gamest and landed the purse by nearly a length from El Otros, which beat out Old Stone a neck for second place. Coruscate's exhibition elicited considerable applause from the spectators and probably settles the fate of Obert for his bad ride on her in her last start at Latonia.

Oasis, strongly supported, landed the purse in the opening race decisively from Bitter Hand. Miss Lida, at a long price again showed her heels to a fair company of youngsters at three-quarters. Barney Schreiber's Sainrida was most fancied, but a bad ride on the part of Keyes eliminated her as a strong Another poor exhibition by Keyes was refactor. sponsible for the defeat of The Only Way in the race which followed, the purse going to Minnehaha by a short margin over Golden Mineral. Judge Hamilton was dissatisfied with Keyes' riding. Believing him timid, he admonished the boy that he would have to show better efforts in the future if he desires to continue riding here. The warning evidently had the desired effect, for Keyes, on Proclearly outrode D. Boland, who had the on Alsono. E. J. Gildersleeve, who started Falkland in this race, became the owner of Alsono through the claiming route, at a cost of $900. The closing race brought about the chief incident of the afternoon. The start was the worst of Dade's efforts here. Amberita, having much the best of the sendoff, essayed to make a runaway race of it, but tired near the end. H. A. BUCK TALKS ABOUT ENGLISH HORSES.

H. A. Buck, p for the Jockey Club, has returned from a trip to England. · He saw considerable racing in country. He says Sleive Gallion is regarded as the best of the two-year-olds in that country and that it appears to be the general belief that he will make a great three-year-old. Mr. Buck says the English experts now agree that Spearmint is a great horse, having been convinced by tory in the Grand Prix at Paris that his triumph in the Derby at Epsom was ne fluke. He is a big, rugged fellow, with plenty of speed and uncon querable courage. He is compared favorably by excellent judges of three-year-old form with the best of recent Derby winners. The English were reluctant to admit the greatness of Spearmint, Mr. Buck avers, because of a national prejudice against horses of Australian pedigree. Spearmint had to fight his way into their esteem.

The death of James R. Keene's great Sysonby is regretted almost as much in England as it is in this country. Mr. Buck heard numerous expressions of sympathy for Mr. Keene. Sysonby is believed on the other side to have been the most accomplished racer of his time without reference to national boundaries. The English believe that if he had lived he would have raced in Great Britain. Sysonby's development of championship form in America was rather surprising to the English, because Melton, his sire, although a stallion of faultless breeding and a superb racehorse withal, was never popular with them. Sysonby's brilliant achievements in 1905, however, sent Melton's stock sky high and created a great demand for his progeny.

HOW FOUNTAINBLUE GOT HIS NAME

"Fountainblue got his name from a never-ceasing spring on my farm near Harrodsburg in Mercer county, Kentucky," explained Fred A. Forsythe, who bred and sold the Oddfellow colt to James B. Brady shortly after the Jockey Club declined to permit the new owner to change the two-year-old's name, "The name was given to the spring by the Indians long before Daniel Boone entered the 'dark and bloody ground.' The water of the spring is blue and it issues forth steadily and fountain-like."

THIEVING TOUTS ARE CAUGHT.

"Two women who patronize the racetracks occa-onally went to the track police Saturday and complained that two men who had introduced them selves as horsemen, had robbed them of big winnings on W. H. Daniel and Miss Crawford," says the New York World. "According to their version of the story, the men accosted them while seated in the grandstand and told them to bet on both horses, as they were interested in them as owners. The women to be gullible, and confided their money to the polite strangers.

When one of the horses won the men returned, but postponed paying the money to the women, saying that they had another sure winner, and advised them to place all the money on this horse 'that couldn't lose unless he fell.' Nothing loath to win a small fortune the women did as directed, or thought the men did, and when Miss Crawford won at 20 to 1, they mentally calculated they were worth

"Subsequent events proved that they were worth that sum in their mind only, for the men failed an appearance, although the women waited patiently two hours for them. the police of the charges revealed the fact that the men had not bet on either of the winners. stated that they had picked the horses because they thought they would not win, but advised women to bet on them so that they could keep the money after the horses had lost.

women had their money returned to them and the men were put off the grounds.

DE MUND A COOL WEATHER HORSE.

The result of the Flatbush Stakes on Saturday proved conclusively two important things-that De Mund is a cool weather horse and that Electioneer must be favored by races that he likes or he will not show his best form," says the New York World.
"As both youngsters have got to be favored by special conditions it bars them from being classified

"De Mund, a nervous, highstrung horse, waster away in hot weather and is in his poorest condition at the very height of the racing season, when the ajority of the rich stakes are decided. This makes him lose much of his value as a racehorse.

"Electioneer seems unable to show to adva except on straight courses. As all the valuable races next year for three-year-olds must be decided over the main tracks, which means many turns, Elec-tioneer will not be able to win unless he learns to race around them."

Winner—Ch. g, by Wandering Jew—Lizzie Walton (trained by J. P. Sherman).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Sartor Resartus set a fast pace and fenced well, but tired in the last turn, of the field and crossed over in front of Sam Parmer at the last jump and kept carrying him toward the outside fence in the stretch run. Sam Parmer ran a good race, was wearing the winner down at the end and would have won, anyhow, in a few more strides. Little Wally was a distant third. Wilkey and Bery Waddell unseated their riders at the first jump and Manzano his at the eighth jump, while Wool Dealer fell at the tenth. Trenct the Mere bolted into the outside wing at the fifth jump.

Cigarlighter recovered his speed suddenly, met with sharp interference on the first turn and again on the backstretch, where he was forced back to last place, worked his way up on the outside on the far turn 2nd, finishing fast, outstayed Cholk Hedrick in the final drive. The latter showed a rare turn of speed and set a terrific pace for six furlongs and held on gamely. Caddicton ran a good race and closed up again in the stretch run after going wide when entering the homestretch. Goldmate was always outrun and runs inconsistently.

Lady Tarantella ran in third position and going very easily to the stretch, where she came along and finished a letsurely second and is a good filly. Cloisteress made the running very easily for six furlongs and then tired. Fatinitza, away poorly, made up considerable ground. Johnstown ran in improved form and was going well at the end. Went to post at 3:29. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Dinna Ken, from a flying start, made the running by a wide gap throughout and won with plenty in reserve, but was disqualified for crossing. Arctic closed up resolutely from behind into a fast going second. Don Enrique loomed up well on the last turn, but thred finally. Horace E. was outpaced by the leader from the start and swerved sharply across the track to the inner rail at half way from home. Dashaway got away badly and never improved his position, running a bad race.

Winner—B. h, by Meddler—Indigo (trained by W. Shields):

Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily; third driving. Go Between is in rare form, indulged the early pacemaker with the lead to the half, where he forged into the lead and won pulled up and off by himself. Angler warmed up sore and ran a remarkably good race, but made a late move after the winner and was easily second best. Red Friar trailed in the early running, but closed up well under a drive in the stretch and ran a good race. Cederstrome made the pace on sufferance and retired in the last quarter.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Belligerent ran in the rear of the serious contention for over half the journey, then moved up in the last six furlongs, but fenced badly under a queer looking ride and only got up in the last stride on the flat. Commandant pursued the leader closely and moved into the lead when beginning the last half and was only caught right at the end of a very game and promising effort. Expansionist ran promineatiy and gamely throughout. Balzac, excessively urged to dispose of Desert Chief in the early running, tired badly at the end and might have won if saved judiciously. Pirate finished well up. Desert Chief showed brilliant speed on the flat, but bolted on the turn and was erratic in his behavior at the jumps.

Winner—Br. c, by Galore—Metempsychosis (trained by J. W. O'Neall).

Went to post at 4:15. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Proteus, away well and showing much improved form, followed the others close up and, although going wide into the stretch, gradually wore down the leaders and got up in the final stride. Alsono forced the pace, raced Western into defeat and tired in the final drive, but held on gamely. Shining Star was going fast at the end after closing a big gap from a poor beginning and would have won in a few more strides. Western tired fast after going five furlougs. La Thorpe ran a bad race. Auditor showed early speed, Overweights—Dulweber, 1 pound.

Winner—B. c, by Sorcerer—Perfume, by Lowland Chief (trained by W. A. Smith).

Went to post at 4:48. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. The Englishman gradually improved his position from a poor beginning and, gaining fast through the stretch drive, got up in the final stride. Amberita beat the barrier and showed the most speed, but lost because of poor handling, Callus almost falling off when trying to ride a strong finish. Postman, away poorly, closed a big gap, and, saving ground when turning into the stretch, finished fast. Oberon showed speed, but tired fast in the last quarter. Scalplock ran a good race under poor handling and lost considerable ground by being taken wide. Banposal was practically left at the post and ran a winning race. Scotch Dance pulled up very lame.

Scratched—(64565)Savoir Faire, 106.

Overweights—Oberon, 1 pound; Scalplock, 1; Belden, 5.
